

THE Chicago Defender
WORLD'S GREATEST WEEKLY

Published by
ROBERT S. ABBOTT PUBLISHING CO.

We Stand Uncompromisingly and We Fight Relentlessly

Box 5528
CHICAGO

June 11, 1941

Mrs. Abe Manley,
101 Montgomery Street,
Newark, N.J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

The news of the Newark Eagles is reaching me on Tuesday mornings. Our dead line (same as last year) is 3:30 p.m. on Mondays. There is a desire on my part to print the Newark Eagles games also pictures. The failure on the pictures is due to you folks there who do not furnish me with any of your players.

The reports of the games each week is due to the manner in which your publicity man sends it out. He addresses it Chicago Defender, Chicago, Ill. It is usually mailed from Newark at midnight Sunday nights. If he would spend 10 cents more and send it AIR MAIL Special delivery and put the address on the envelope 3435 Indiana avenue, I am sure I would get it in time. Anyhow let's try this out and see if it works. This is Wednesday and I do not have any story or box scores of the double header in New York city. The New York end will be taken up with Semler, Frank Forbes and Trammel, the last two who seem to be trying to handle the publicity, when I see you folk at the joint meeting at the Hotel Theresa next week.

If I can get a good picture of you and a story on your activities as the only woman now identified with Negro baseball, I shall be pleased to run the same gratis. It should be interesting to our women readers. I personally believe you have done an excellent job, that you are far sighted and have much better ability in matters pertaining to the league than some of our so-called male magnates.

Howdy to Mr. Manley.

Frank A. Young
Sports editor